Want room to spread out near the water?
These three wooded lots in Lakewood Shores offer 1.778 acres just minutes from Lake Limestone, giving you space to build and enjoy the outdoors your way. Whether you're planning a weekend place or something more permanent, the layout is up to you—clear what you need and keep the rest wooded for privacy.

As part of the Lakewood Shores community, you'll have access to a private park and boat ramp, so getting out on the lake is easy. Lake Limestone covers over 12,500 acres and is known for solid fishing year-round. You'll find everything from largemouth and white bass to crappie and heavyweight catfish—some of the best fishing this region has to offer.

With quiet waters, less boat traffic, and good shoreline structure, it's the kind of lake that feels like your own. Properties with this much space don't come available often—call today to walk it in person and see if it's the right fit.
