Bedroom, Bathroom,
Land on 34.10 Acres

Other, Fayetteville, TX

This 34-acre property in Fayetteville, Texas, showcases a picturesque mix of open pastures and mature trees. Gentle elevation changes create visual variety across the landscape, enhancing both its aesthetic appeal and natural drainage. The open areas provide ample space for livestock, recreation, or future improvements, while the clusters of established trees offer shade, privacy, and habitat for wildlife. Bordering LCRA land at the rear, the property enjoys added seclusion and protection from future development. With its combination of rolling terrain, tree cover, and open space, it offers a versatile setting for agricultural, residential, or recreational use in a peaceful rural environment.
