Residential on 0.46 Acres

College Park, College Station, TX

Exquisitely restored and reimagined Campus home. The home was originally built on campus in 1899 and moved to its current location in 1942. It was home to D. W. Williams who was president of Texas A&M College in the 50's. The opportunities for this home are boundless with accommodations for 14. The upstairs "bunk room" has its own sitting room and twin bathrooms. Downstairs is the primary bedroom with its own on-suite bath/closet. The great room looks out onto the private side yard with a century oak shading the entertaining/eating area ideal for one's corporate/family tailgate. The homes original character has been retained while updating all of the important areas to provide the modern amenities expected today. The home occupies an oversized, almost 1/2 acre lot and is less than a 5 minute walk from Kyle Field. The home exudes both history and functionality. The home has parking for 4 in the garage as well 2 under the porte corche , 4 more in the dirveway and an additional 6 spaces on the street, ideal for game day use.
