3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 2,073 sqft

Residential on 0.63 Acres

Other, Bastrop, TX

Step back in time with a piece of Texas history on Pecan Street, a charming Victorian residence proudly recognized as a Recorded Texas Historic Landmark. Set on a prominent corner lot at Beech and Pecan Streets in the heart of Bastrop's historic district, this home is framed by a canopy of mature shade trees and featured on a double lot.

Architectural highlights include original cypress wood siding, metal roof, original tall windows, decorative gable trim, and a wraparound porch. Inside, the home offers three spacious bedrooms, two full bathrooms, soaring ceilings, wood flooring, rich original millwork, and a fireplace—all showcasing the craftsmanship of its era. Just blocks from downtown Bastrop, it is ideally located for both convenience and character.
