Built in the early 1900s, moved in 1982 and lovingly restored in 2009 this farmhouse was featured in Paper City Magazine by designers who wanted a country retreat while antiquing in nearby Round Top. The renovation preserved character while blending in modern comforts. This 4/2 farmhouse has beautifully maintained hardwood floors and shiplap walls. Enjoy peaceful views of the surrounding rolling hills, both morning and evening from the expansive screened porches. A timeless gathering place for friends and family. A spacious workshop added in 2019 is insulated and air conditioned for working and storing your cars, atvs or other farm necessities. Contents are negotiable, ready for you to start enjoying your best country life now! Some exclusions apply. Sitting on 5 acres in the rolling hills of Washington County offering space and serenity! Adjoining 25 acres also available. Valley View Lane is only a short drive into town yet remote so no drive through traffic. A must see!

Built in 1905
